RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED

Honorable Tracey Avila
Chairwoman, Robinson Rancheria
Post Office Box 4015
Nice, California 95464

Dear Chairwoman Avila:

This is regarding the Secretarial Election conducted on February 9, 2013, which I authorized by letter dated August 15, 2012, pursuant to Title 25 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Part 81, for the adoption/rejection of the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the Robinson Rancheria.

As evidenced by the Certificate of Results of Election, signed by the Election Board Members on February 9, 2013, the proposed amendments to the Constitution were deemed unsuccessful because less than fifty-one percent (51%) of those entitled to vote cast their ballots in the Secretarial Election. Therefore, please be advised that the current Constitution, as amended and adopted on September 6, 1980, and approved by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs on October 21, 1980, remains in effect.

Enclosed with this letter are the documents that were submitted regarding the Secretarial Election for your files. If you have any questions, please contact Viola Brooks, Regional Tribal Operations Specialist, at (916) 978-6073.

Sincerely,

Amy L. Klutsch

CONSTITUTION
ROBINSON RANCHERIA
LAKE COUNTY, CALIFORNIA

PREAMBLE

We the members of Robinson Rancheria, located in Lake County, State of California, in order to promote our common welfare and to secure to ourselves and our descendants the rights, powers and privileges offered by the Indian Reorganization Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 984) as amended; do hereby establish this organization and adopt this constitution pursuant to that act.

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Robinson Rancheria.

ARTICLE II - TERRITORY

The jurisdiction of the Robinson Rancheria shall extend to all lands within the confines of the boundaries as established by Secretarial Order of February 15, 1907, and September 8, 1909, for Robinson Rancheria, and to such other lands as may hereafter be acquired by or for the Robinson Rancheria.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Membership in the Robinson Rancheria shall consist of the following categories:

(a) All persons whose name appears on the Revocation of Termination Proclamation and Restoration of Federal Status Notice for Robinson Rancheria as published in the Federal Register on June 29, 1977 (42 F.R. 33099).

(b) All persons living on the effective date of this constitution who were listed as distributees and dependent members of their immediate families in the Plan for the Distribution of the Assets of the Robinson Rancheria as approved by the Under Secretary of the Interior on August 30, 1965, and published in the Federal Register on September 3, 1965 (30 F.R. 11330).

~~(c) Spouses of individuals listed in (a) above who have at least one-fourth (1/4) degree of California Indian blood.~~ deleted H1

~~(d)~~ Persons who are lineal descendants of individuals eligible for membership under (a) above, regardless of whether the ancestor through whom eligibility is claimed is living or deceased, provided such descendants possess at least one-fourth (1/4) degree California Indian blood. (1C) H2

Sec. 2. A person who has been allotted on another reservation or is officially enrolled with or is a recognized member of some other tribe or band shall not be enrolled. A "recognized member of another tribe or rancheria" is a person whose name is listed on the membership roll of another tribe or rancheria or has received a land use assignment on another reservation.

Sec. 3. The official membership roll shall be prepared in accordance with an ordinance adopted by the governing body and approved by the Secretary of the Interior or his authorized representative. Such ordinance shall contain provisions for enrollment procedures, enrollment committees, application form, approval or disapproval of application, rejection notice, appeals, corrections and provisions for keeping the roll on a current basis.

ARTICLE IV - GOVERNING BODY

Section 1. The governing body of the Robinson Rancheria shall be the Robinson Rancheria Citizens Business Council. The citizens business council shall consist of six (6) members elected at-large from the Robinson Rancheria. The citizens business council shall be composed of a chairperson, vice-chairperson, secretary-treasurer and three (3) members, each elected by a majority of the qualified voters in such an election, provided at least thirty percent (30%) of those eligible to vote have voted. In the event that no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast or in the event that thirty percent (30%) of the voters do not participate in the election, a subsequent election will be held within thirty (30) days. Other committees may be appointed or elected when deemed necessary. The secretary-treasurer may receive such compensation as may be determined by the citizens business council. Members of the tribal council may also receive compensation for travel and other expenses as may be authorized by the citizens business council.

Sec. 2. Tribal Council. The tribal council shall consist of all enrolled members of the rancheria, eighteen (18) years of age or older. The tribal council shall exercise its power through referendum and amendment and such other powers as may be delegated to it by this constitution.

ARTICLE V - ELECTIONS

Section 1. Voter Qualification. All enrolled members of the Robinson Rancheria who are eighteen (18) years of age or older, regardless of residence, are qualified voters.

Sec. 2. Qualification of Candidates. A candidate for the position of chairperson or vice-chairperson and secretary-treasurer must be a qualified voter of the Robinson Rancheria, eighteen (18) years of age or older. No person who has been convicted of a felony or who within the last year preceding the election has been convicted of a crime involving dishonesty shall be eligible to hold office on the citizens business council.

Sec. 3. All elections of tribal officials shall be by secret ballot.

Sec. 4. First Election. The officers of the Robinson Rancheria in office at the time of approval of this constitution by the Secretary of the Interior or his authorized representative shall hold office until their successors are duly elected and seated. The first regular election of officials under this constitution shall be held on the second Saturday in June of 1981. At the first election held under this document, the chairperson, the secretary-treasurer and one (1) member-at-large shall be elected to hold office for a period of three (3) years; the vice-chairperson and two (2) members-at-large shall be elected for a period of two (2) years. Thereafter, all terms of office shall be for ~~two (2)~~ years and elections shall be held annually on the second Saturday in June. Members shall hold office until their successors are duly elected and ~~installed~~. seated as set forth in the election ordinance adopted pursuant to Sec. 6.

#3 (4). #4

Sec. 5. Nominations. The time, place and manner of nominations shall be specified in the election ordinance adopted pursuant to Section 6 of this article.

Sec. 6. Election Ordinance. An election ordinance shall be adopted by the tribal council within six (6) months following the effective date of this constitution. Such ordinance shall include but not be limited to the following provisions: Secret balloting; nomination of candidates; absentee balloting; and a procedure for resolving election disputes.

Provisions shall also be included regarding the conduct of recall and referendum elections and a uniform procedure for submitting petitions. Elections to amend this constitution shall be conducted in accordance with Article XVI of this constitution.

ARTICLE VI - REMOVAL, RECALL AND FORFEITURE

Section 1. Removal. Any member of the citizens business council or other official of the Robinson Rancheria who, during the term for which he/she is elected or appointed, is convicted of a felony in any Federal or State Court shall automatically forfeit his/her office effective on the date of his/her initial conviction in court. Any official found guilty by the citizens business council of behavior involving misconduct reflecting on the dignity and integrity of the tribal government, malfeasance in office, or gross neglect of duty shall be removed from office if at least four (4) members of the citizens business council vote in favor of such removal. Voting must be by secret ballot and the chairperson is entitled to vote. If the accused is a member of the citizens business council, the accused shall have the right to cast a secret ballot. Before any vote for removal is taken, such member or official shall be given a written statement of the charges against him/her at least ten (10) days before the meeting of the citizens business council at which he/she is to appear and he/she shall be given an opportuntity to answer any and all charges at the designated council meeting. The decision of the citizens business council shall be final. No member of the citizens business council shall preside over the meeting at which his/her removal is being considered.

Sec. 2. Recall. Upon receipt of a petition signed by at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the qualified voters of the rancheria, it shall be the duty of the citizens business council to call and conduct within thirty (30) days an election to consider the recall of an elected official.

The election shall be conducted pursuant to the election ordinance. Once an individual has been subjected to recall proceedings, he/she shall not again be subject to such action during the balance of his/her term of office.

Sec. 3. Forfeiture. After due notice, it shall be the duty of the affected governmental body immediately to declare vacant any position and to promptly fill such vacancy in the manner provided in Article VII when it is determined that the incumbent:

(a) Has resigned.

(b) Has been convicted while in office of a crime involving dishonesty.

(c) Has been convicted of a felony while in office.

(d) Has falsified his/her affadavit of qualifications or has omitted information concerning a conviction of a felony or any crime involving dishonesty when being certified as a candidate for tribal office.

(e) Has been absent, without being excused by the respective body, for three (3) consecutive meetings; provided, that the loss of office for such reason shall not serve to deny a person from becoming a candidate for office in subsequent elections.

(f) Has ceased to reside physically in the State of California.

ARTICLE VII - VACANCIES

Section 1. Any office which has been vacated, whether it be by removal, recall or forfeiture, shall be filled by appointment of the citizens business council at its next meeting and such replacement shall serve the unexpired term of office.

ARTICLE VIII - POWERS OF THE ROBINSON RANCHERIA CITIZENS BUSINESS COUNCIL

Section 1. The Robinson Rancheria Citizens Business Council shall have powers and responsibilities hereinafter provided under the Indian Reorganization Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 984) as amended by the Act of June 15, 1935 (49 Stat. 378), subject to any limitations imposed upon such powers by the laws of the United States.

(a) To consult, negotiate, contract or conclude agreements with Federal, State and local governments on activities which may effect the Robinson Rancheria.

(b) To employ legal counsel, the choice of counsel and fixing of fees to be subject to the approval of the ~~Secretary of the Interior or his authorized representative.~~ Robinson Rancheria Citizens Business Council #5

(c) To receive advice from and make recommendations to the Secretary of the Interior with regard to all appropriation estimates for all projects which are for the benefit of members of the Robinson Rancheria prior to the submission of such estimates to the Office of Management and Budget and Congress.

(d) To manage, lease or otherwise operate all unassigned tribal property and to control the use of and development on assigned tribal lands. Toward this end the citizens business council shall within one (1) year of the effective date of this constitution and bylaws submit for ratification to a referendum vote of the rancheria a land assignment and land use ordinance.

(e) To acquire property and to accept gifts.

(f) To join and/or charter tribal housing authorities.

(g) To charter tribal enterprises, corporations and associations.

(h) To prescribe rules and regulations governing future membership, loss of membership and the adoption of members.

(i) To administer tribal assets and manage all economic affairs and enterprises of the rancheria.

(j) To promulgate and enforce such ordinances as are deemed necessary to safeguard and promote the peace, safety, health and general welfare of the members of the rancheria.

(k) To promulgate and adopt ordinances necessary or incidental to the exercise of any of the foregoing powers and duties as long as they are not in conflict with this constitution.

Sec. 2. Any rights and powers heretofore vested in the Robinson Rancheria, but not expressly referred to in this constitution, shall not be lost by reason of their omission but may be exercised by the citizens business council through the adoption of appropriate amendments to the constitution.

ARTICLE IX - TRIBAL ENACTMENTS

Section 1. Ordinances. All final decisions on matters of general and permanent interest to members of the tribe shall be embodied in ordinances, such as an enrollment ordinance or an election ordinance. Such enactments shall be available for inspection by members of the tribal council during normal office hours.

Sec. 2. Resolutions and Motions. All final decisions on matters of short term or one time interest where a formal expression is needed shall be embodied in resolutions. Other decisions of a temporary nature or relating to particular individuals, officials or committees shall be put in the form of motions and noted in the minutes and shall be available for inspection by members of the tribal council during normal office hours.

Sec. 3. All ordinances and resolutions shall be dated and numbered, and shall include a certification showing the presence of a quorum and the number of members voting for or against the proposed enactment.

Sec. 4. No enactment of the Robinson Rancheria Citizens Business Council shall have any validity or effect in the absence of a quorum of the membership thereof at a legally called session.

Sec. 5. Approval of Tribal Enactments. Any resolution or ordinance which by the terms of this constitution or Federal law requires the approval of the Secretary of the Interior must be received by the local Bureau Superintendent no later than ten (10) days following its enactment in order to be considered for approval. It shall be the duty of the Secretary's local representative to issue acknowledgment of receipt of such enactment within five (5) working days of his receipt thereof. If timely filed, that enactment shall not become effective until it is approved by the Secretary's authorized representative, provided that if such enactment is not disapproved within ninety (90) days from the date it is timely received by the Secretary's local representative, it shall on the ninety-first (91st) day automatically become effective.

ARTICLE X - REFERENDUM

Section 1. Upon presentation to the Robinson Citizens Business Council of a petition signed by fifty-one percent (51%) of the qualified voters, the citizens business council shall either (1) adopt the provisions of the petition by ordinance, resolution or other appropriate action; or (2) provide that the issue presented by the petition be voted on within sixty (60) days, by secret ballot, at a regular or special election. The Robinson Citizens Business Council shall abide by the vote of the majority of the voters in any such election, provided that at least fifty-one percent (51%) of those eligible to vote have voted.

ARTICLE XI - BILL OF RIGHTS

Section 1. All members of the rancheria shall enjoy without hindrance, freedom of worship, conscience, speech, press, assembly and association.

Sec. 2. This constitution shall not in any way alter, abridge, or otherwise jeopardize the right and privileges of the members of the rancheria as citizens of the State of California or the United States.

Sec. 3. The individual property rights of any member of the Robinson Rancheria shall not be altered, abridged or otherwise affected by the provisions of this constitution.

Sec. 4. Tribal members shall have the right to review all tribal records, including financial records, at any reasonable time in accordance with procedures established by the citizens business council.

Sec. 5. In accordance with Title II of the Indian Civil Rights Act of 1968 (82 Stat. 77), the Robinson Rancheria in exercising its powers of self-government shall not:

(a) Make or enforce any law prohibiting the full exercise of religion, or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press, or the right of the people peaceably to assemble and to petition for a redress of grievances;

(b) Violate the right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers and effects against unreasonable search and seizure, nor issue warrants, but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched and the person or thing to be seized;

(c) Subject any person for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy;

(d) Compel any person in any criminal case to be a witness against himself;

(e) Take any private property for a public use without just compensation;

(f) Deny to any person in a criminal proceeding the right to a speedy trial, to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation, to be confronted with the witnesses against him, to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and, at his own expense, to have the assistance of counsel for his defense;

(g) Require excessive bail, impose excessive fines, inflict cruel and unusual punishments, and in no event impose for conviction of any one offense any penalty or punishment greater than imprisonment for a term of six (6) months or a fine of $500.00 or both;

(h) Deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of its laws or deprive any person of liberty or property without due process of laws;

(i) Pass any bill of attainder or ex post facto law;

(j) Deny to any person accused of imprisonment the right, upon request, to a trial by jury of not less than six (6) persons.

ARTICLE XII - MEETINGS

Section 1. Regular meetings of the citizens business council shall be held on the first Saturday of each quarter in a place designated by the citizens business council. Special meetings of the citizens business council may be called by the chairperson and shall be called by him upon receipt of a petition signed by at least three (3) citizens business council members and when so called, the citizens business council shall have power to transact business as in regular meetings provided that a quorum is present. Members of the citizens business council shall be notified at least three (3) days in advance of all special tribal meetings.

Sec. 2. A quorum of the citizens business council shall consist of four (4) members of the citizens business council. No business shall be transacted unless a quorum is present.

ARTICLE XIV - DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 1. Newly elected officers shall assume their respective office and duties immediately upon being elected.

Sec. 2. The chairperson shall preside at all meetings of the citizens business council and of the tribal council and shall execute on behalf of the rancheria all contracts, leases or other documents approved by the citizens business council. He/she shall vote only in the case of a tie. He/she shall have general supervision of all other officers, employees and committees of the rancheria and see that their duties are properly performed. When the citizens business council is not in session, he/she shall be the official representative of the rancheria.

Sec. 3. The vice-chairperson shall assist the chairperson when called upon to do so. In the absence of the chairperson, he/she shall preside and when so presiding shall have all the rights, privileges, duties and responsibilities of the chairperson.

Sec. 4. The secretary-treasurer shall keep the minutes of all meetings and shall attest to the enactment of all resolutions and ordinances. Copies of all minutes, resolutions and ordinances shall be submitted by him/her to the Bureau of Indian Affairs as soon after enactment as possible. The secretary-treasurer shall issue notices of all meetings and elections and conduct all general correspondence as directed by the citizens business council. The secretary-treasurer shall carry out the financial directives of the citizens business council, receive all local monies of the rancheria and keep an accurate account of the receipts and disbursements. Funds shall be deposited in the Robinson Rancheria's account in a local bank selected by the citizens business council where depositor's funds are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. All disbursements shall be made by check in accordance with resolutions of the citizens business council. The secretary-treasurer shall file a bond satisfactory to the citizens business council once a month, and all financial records shall be available for inspection by any member of the Robinson Rancheria through appointment according to procedures established by the citizens business council, and shall be open at all times for audit and inspection by representatives of the Bureau of Indian Affairs. At the expiration of his/her term of office, the secretary-treasurer shall turn over all the records and papers in his/her possession to his/her successor or the citizens business council.

ARTICLE XV - SEVERABILITY

If any provision of this constitution shall, in the future, be declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid provision or provisions shall be severed and the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

ARTICLE XVI - AMENDMENTS

Section 1. This constitution may be amended by a majority vote of the qualified voters of the Robinson Rancheria voting in an election called for that purpose by the Secretary of the Interior or his authorized representative, provided that at least fifty-one percent (51%) of those entitled to vote shall vote in such election, but no amendment shall become effective until approved by the Secretary of the Interior or his duly authorized representative.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Interior to call an election on any proposed amendment at the request of the citizens business council or upon receipt of a petition signed by at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the qualified voters of the Robinson Rancheria.

ARTICLE XVII - ADOPTION

Section 1. This constitution when adopted by a majority vote of the qualified voters of the Robinson Rancheria, voting at an election called for that purpose by the Secretary of the Interior or his authorized representative in which at least fifty percent (50%) of those entitled to vote shall vote, shall be submitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his approval, and shall be effective from the date of his approval.

ARTICLE - Supremacy Clause

Section 1. This Constitution is the supreme law of the Robinson Rancheria and any tribal law that is inconsistent or in conflict with this Constitution is void.

RESOLUTION NO. 04-03-2012-A

A RESOLUTION OF THE ROBINSON RANCHERIA CITIZENS BUSINESS COUNCIL REQUESTING THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR TO CALL AND CONDUCT AN ELECTION UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF THE INDIAN REORGANIZATION ACT, 25 U.S.C. § 476, TO AMEND THE TRIBE'S EXISTING CONSTITUTION.

WHEREAS, the Robinson Rancheria ("Tribe") is a federally recognized Indian tribe organized under the provisions of the Indian Reorganization Act, 25 U.S.C. § 476 ("IRA"), under a written constitution which designates the Robinson Rancheria Citizens Business Council ("Council") as the governing body of the Tribe; and

WHEREAS, Article XVI entitled "Amendments of the Constitution of the Robinson Rancheria" ("Constitution") provides that the Constitution may be amended by a majority vote of the qualified voters of the Tribe voting in an election called for that purpose by the Secretary of the Interior or his authorized representative ("Secretary"), provided that at least fifty-one percent (51%) of those entitled to vote shall vote in such an election; and

WHEREAS, at a duly convened meeting of the Council, the Council determined that it is in the best interests of the Tribe to amend the Constitution as provided for in this resolution ("Resolution"); and

WHEREAS, Title 25 of the United States Code § 476 requires the Secretary to call an election to amend a tribal constitution within ninety (90) days of receipt of a request from a federally recognized Indian tribe organized under the provisions of the IRA.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Robinson Rancheria Citizens Business Council hereby requests that the Secretary of the Interior, pursuant to 25 U.S.C. § 476 and Article XVI of the Constitution of the Robinson Rancheria, call and conduct an election among the eligible voters of the Tribe, pursuant to 25 C.F.R. Part 81, to amend the Constitution as follows:

1. Article III, entitled "Membership," Section 1(c), shall be deleted in its entirety.

2. Article III, entitled "Membership," Section 1(d), shall be renumbered 1(c).

3. Article V, entitled "Elections," Section 4 entitled "First Election," shall be amended by deleting the word "two" and the number "2" as it appears in the second to the last sentence in the Section, and substituting in their place the word "four" and the number "4."

4. Article V, entitled "Elections," Section 4 entitled "First Election," shall be amended by deleting the word "installed" in the last sentence of the Section and substituting in its place the phrase: "seated as set forth in the Election Ordinance adopted pursuant to Sec. 6 below."

5. Article VIII, entitled "Powers of the Robinson Rancheria Citizens Business Council," Section 1(b), shall be modified by deleting the phrase: "of the Secretary of the Interior or his authorized representative" from the subsection and substituting in its place the phrase: "of the Robinson Rancheria Citizens Business Council."

6. A new Article XVIII, entitled "Supremacy Clause," shall be added to the Constitution, which shall read as follows:

Section 1. This Constitution is the supreme law of the Robinson Rancheria and any tribal law that is inconsistent or in conflict with this Constitution is void.
